To Whomsoever It May Concern

This is to inform you that Forum IAS has registered an FIR at Karol Bagh Police Station against unscrupulous elements who have indulged in unauthorized selling and buying of the Online Classes of Forum IAS on Telegram and other such platforms. These perpetrators, responsible for leaking Forum IAS's Online Classes have been successfully identified and an FIR has been registered against them.

We hereby emphasize that the videos produced by Forum IAS are its Intellectual Property. Any attempt, devoid of authorized consent, to illicitly copy, tamper, buy or sell these videos will attract the strictest penalty in accordance with the law.

It is hereby directed that genuine students should desist from viewing, hoarding, selling or buying such unauthorized videos, as doing so will make one accomplice in the act.

Our purpose of delivering this message is to ensure that no one falls into the dangerous trap of jeopardizing their own future. We trust in your wisdom and compliance. Failure to adhere to this warning will bring forth grave consequences, as Forum IAS will relentlessly pursue those who violate its rights and tarnish its resources.
