Q1. Consider the following pairs regarding the revised classification criteria for MSMEs based on annual turnover:

1. Micro Enterprises – Up to Rs. 5 crore
2. Small Enterprises – Up to Rs. 50 crore
3. Medium Enterprises – Up to Rs. 250 crore

How many of the above pairs are correctly matched?

- A. Only one
- B. Only two
- C. All three
- D. None

Correct Answer: D

Explanation : Under the revised MSME norms, micro enterprises have an annual turnover limit of up to ₹10 crore, small enterprises up to ₹100 crore, and medium enterprises up to ₹500 crore. Since none of the given turnover limits match the revised criteria, none of the pairs are correctly matched.

Q6. Consider the following statements regarding the Jamma Bane land system:

1. Jamma Bane refers to a traditional land system in parts of the Western Ghats region of Karnataka, where forest land was assigned to villagers for grazing and livelihood needs, while ownership remained with the state.
2. Lands classified as Jamma Bane are treated as private agricultural holdings, allowing unrestricted conversion for non-agricultural purposes.

Which of the statements given above is/are correct?

- (a) 1 only
- (b) 2 only
- (c) Both 1 and 2
- (d) Neither 1 nor 2

Answer: (a)

Explanation: 1 only

Statement 1 is correct: Jamma Bane lands are found mainly in Kodagu (Coorg) and adjoining Western Ghats districts of Karnataka. These lands historically supported grazing, leaf manure collection, and livelihood activities, while remaining legally classified as forest or revenue land under state ownership.

Statement 2 is incorrect: Jamma Bane lands are not private agricultural lands and are subject to restrictions on sale, transfer, and conversion, due to their ecological significance.

Q2. Consider the following statements regarding the constitutional procedure for removal of judges of the Supreme Court and High Courts in India:

1. Articles 124 and 218 of the Constitution deal with the removal of judges of the Supreme Court and High Courts respectively on the grounds of proved misbehaviour or incapacity.
2. The Constitution of India expressly uses the term “impeachment” for the removal of judges of the higher judiciary.
3. If a motion for removal is admitted, a three-member inquiry committee comprising a Supreme Court judge, a Chief Justice of a High Court, and a distinguished jurist is constituted to investigate the charges.
4. A judge can be removed only after the motion is passed by a simple majority in both Houses of Parliament and an order is issued by the President of India.

Which of the statements given above are correct?

- A. 1 and 3
- B. 1 only
- C. 2 and 4
- D. 1, 3 and 4

Correct Answer: A

Explanation:

- Statement 1 is Correct: Article 124 (for Supreme Court judges) and Article 218 (for High Court judges) lay down the constitutional provisions for removal on grounds of proved misbehaviour or incapacity.
- Statement 2 is Incorrect: The Constitution does not use the term “impeachment” for the removal of judges. Removal of judges is a special constitutional procedure distinct from impeachment of the President.
- Statement 3 is Correct: Under the Judges Enquiry Act, 1968, once a motion is admitted, a three-member inquiry committee is formed consisting of a Supreme Court judge, a Chief Justice of a High Court, and a distinguished jurist.
- Statement 4 is Incorrect: Removal of a judge requires a special majority in both Houses of Parliament (majority of total membership and two-thirds of members present and voting), not a simple majority, followed by a Presidential order.
