CRITERIA FOR THE FEEDBACK SECTION AT THE END OF EACH QUESTION

- 1. AWIS = Answered What is Asked. This means whether you have addressed the core demand of the question or not. Addressing the core demand of the question gets you an objectively fair score. It is examiner's perception if you have understood the question and if you know the answer in the first place. Creative answer writing, sometimes missing the core demand, may fetch very high or very low scores, and exposes your answer to the subjectivity of the examiner.
- 2. CD & VA = Content Density & Value Addition. Examiner will evaluate the quality and quantity of your content in the answer. In the same word limit and space limit have you (a) written what is asked (b) gone beyond what is asked (c) enriched answers through combination of (but not all!) suggestions, ideas, quotes, flowcharts, diagrams, facts and figures, data etc. This affects objective components of assessment
- 3. S & F = Structure & Flow = Whether you have structured your answer properly or not. Whether the answer has been broken into parts and sub-parts and each part has been addressed appropriately or not. Whether the flow of the answer is maintained. Affects both subjective and objective components of assessment.
- 4. P & R = How your answer performs on the criteria of presentation, ease of read, clarity and apparent effort in writing the answer. This affects the subjective components of assessment.

The political reorganisation of states has been demanded for various reasons including linguistic demands, underdevelopment or even religion. The demand for a new states are met if the demands are genuine and the constitution too provides for it via Article 3.

- (ii) Karnataka : the Aikya Karnataka movement for unification of Kannada speaking areas was accepted in 1956. The State Reorganisation Commission gave approval for linguistic Revolutionary activities in Indian freedom movement were prominent during the pre world war I period and from post WWI to the 1930's. These revolutionary activities often focussed on individual action which later changed to mainstream freedom movement with time.

Revolutionary Contributions | (1900-1919)

- The Anushilan Samiti was active in Bengal and published pamphlets for awareness.
- The Muzaffarnagar conspiracy by Khuldiaram Bose and Pranfulla Chatterjee.
- The Zimmerman plot to bring in German arms and cause a revolt among Indian Army which failed.
- The Ghadar group active in western American coast (eg: Lala Hardayal, Madanlal Dhingra)

(post 1919)

- Hindustan social Republican Army (1928) and their activities of Kakori robbery, bombing of Central Legislative Assembly (1931) by Bhagat Singh and Sukhdev
- Utham Singh killing of Punjab Governor at Feroz during Jallianwala Bagh massacre in England.
- Suroyasen and revolutionaries in Bengal, prithilata waddelar and kalpana Dutt e.g. Paharali Resort attack.

Factors limiting Revolutionary Efforts

- Violent revolution were not supported by mainstream non-violent movement.
- Revolutionaries lacked effective leadership and often felt disoriented (e.g.: ~~modan~~ Lala Hardayal in Ghadr).
- Revolutionary activities were very unorganised in British narrative .

- Repressive acts like the public safety act of 1928 were used against revolutionaries.
- Revolutionary conspiracies were leaked from within their group (eg: Zimmerman plot).
- Revolutionary activity could not mobilise masses and create nationwide awareness and remained secluded to pockets in the country (eg: Punjab or Bengal).

Revolutionary activities could stoke nationalistic fervour among many during the freedom struggle and people sympathised with them. The revolutionary fervour later joined mainstream nationalism.

Q.16) The 'paper partition' of Africa and its prolonged journey to decolonization stand in contrast to colonial experiences elsewhere. Analyse. (15 marks, 250 words)

अफ्रीका का 'कागज़ी विभाजन' और उपनिवेशवाद से मुक्ति की इसकी लंबी यात्रा अन्य जगहों के औपनिवेशिक अनुभवों के विपरीत है। विश्लेषण कीजिए। (15 अंक, 250 शब्द)

The African colonialisation history has been an ~~mutual~~ exercise of exploitation by European colonial countries to fuel their industrial revolution from the resource rich continent.

The African colonisation

- involved imperial countries like Britain, Poland, Italy etc and they charted a partition plan to reap resources, (most boundaries are straight and doesn't account for geographical or ethnic sensitivities).
- Like all colonial countries there was one way free trade but there was additional issue of 'slave trade' in the 16-17 centuries.
- The local populations were racially abused the most and gave rise to 'apartheid'

- Human resource development during the colonial period was minimal and could not create an empowered population ~~even~~ to rule a free state.

The Route to decolonisation

- stands in dark contrast as African nations were mostly colonised even after the second world war, and independence came in the 20th century endgame.
- the apartheid ~~was~~ by white population still determines living situations : eg high inequality in south Africa.
- There is a rise of fundamentalism and warring clans which vie for power in these countries eg: Boko Haram.
- with failure of democratic system, conflicts are common eg: the civil war in south Sudan.

The richest continent in terms of resources is now experiencing another wave of neo colonialism by the developed nations in terms of climate colonialism and resource extraction for renewable energy.

India is a country which has only 4% of global freshwater resources while it supports 18% of world's population. Reducing groundwater levels and issues of water quality makes India one of the most water stressed countries in the world.

- There is increased requirement for irrigation due to cultivation of water guzzling crops (eg: Rice - 1 kg rice indirectly requires 3000L of water).
- huge demand of water in thermal power stations.
- increasing demand of water in manufacturing sector eg: production of steel.

2. pollution

- effluents from industries often are emptied into water bodies. (eg: Heavy metal toxicity)
- ^{nutrient} leaching from agricultural fields causing eutrophication and higher Biological Oxygen Demand.
- increased siltation of water during floods and mudslides.
- plastic and human solid wastes clogging waterbodies (eg: microplastics in drinking water).

3. Climate change

Q.19 "A seemingly casteless upper caste and an apparently caste-defined lower caste is one of the central aspects of the institution of caste in contemporary times". Comment. (15 marks, 250 words)

"एक जातिविहीन उच्च जाति और एक जाति-परिभाषित निम्न जाति, समकालीन समय में जाति संस्था के केंद्रीय पहलुओं में से एक है"। टिप्पणी कीजिए। (15 अंक, 250 शब्द)

Caste is an ascriptive characteristic in Indian society which causes disabilities in social mobility. While caste based customs were reducing among upper castes, the lower castes were adhering to caste principles.

Caste is reducing among upper classes because

- They are an aspirational class and are westernised who try to move away from traditional caste norms.
- With better communication and transport, they are more exposed to global developments and a cosmopolitan culture.
- Historically, upper castes secured high positions in the British administration and they tried to mimic the living standards and norms of the westerners.

- notion that caste norms are regressive among a neo liberal upper class population.

castes
lower classes are caste defined

- MN Srinivas speaks about the process of Sanskritisation where 'lower castes' emulate secular characters of higher castes to achieve social mobility eg: dowry among lower castes.
- lower castes tend to be more religious if they are poor and follow the religious texts vehemently (according to dharmasastras).
- lower castes follow hierarchy to look down on castes beneath them eg, Vaishyas discriminating Shudras.
- education and western education is low among historically depressed lower castes and modernisation) is difficult for them.

- They mostly live in rural areas where caste based laws operate (eg. Uda Khat panchayats)

However, this is not a strict dichotomy as caste very much define upper caste relations as - there is caste endogamy in marriage.

- higher positions of institutions exhibit homologous reproduction of same caste people also among lower castes.

- with the coming of a constitutional rights and policies, there is lesser discrimination in public life.

- affirmative actions to increase representation among different fields is prominent.

Caste in India is very dynamic feature and drawing conclusions are ~~diffic~~ difficult. Nonetheless caste based discrimination and disabilities is a reality in India in 2024.

Q.20) Tolerance and harmony are engrained in societal ethos of India, but communal discord remains a significant threat to the nation's pluralistic fabric. Elaborate. (15 marks, 250 words)

सहिष्णुता और सद्भाव भारत के सामाजिक लोकाचार में निहित हैं, लेकिन सांप्रदायिक कलह देश के बहुलवादी ताने-बाने के लिए एक महत्वपूर्ण खतरा बना हुआ है। सविस्तर वर्णन कीजिए। (15 अंक, 250 शब्द)

Communalism teaches that membership of a person to a religion would make his life and needs antithetical to another person of different religion. India's secular and pluralistic ethos are challenged by communal ideologies for selfish needs.

Communal discord in India is fuelled by

- religious political campaigning for vote bank politics.
- narratives of communal disharmony spread through social media (eg: Love Jihad)
- misinformation and fake news increasing communal feeling (eg: Delhi riots of 2020).
- historical recurrence of communal history writings, rule and divide policy of Britishers.
- Economic disparity among different religions causing the poor to band up against the community perceived of reaping benefits.

- radical elements of a religion spreading fundamentalism working against India.
- There is an overall wave of increasing fundamentalism in the world along with the election of right wing governments.

(Tolerance) and (harmony in India) has been able to control these disord. to some extent:

- Eg: philosophy of sarva dhama sama bhava.
- India is home to religions like Buddhism which advocate peace.
- The Indian National movement itself is an example of a non-violent movement with participation from all religions.
- societal ethos of peace and harmony is replicated in the Directive principles of state policy and Fundamental Duties.
- India has declared itself to be a secular nation with including the positive aspect of secularisation i.e, ~~the~~ treating all religions equally.

This continuing threat on the peaceful ethos of the nation needs to be controlled by:

- actions of civil society for peace
- an empowered citizenry to identify efforts of creating communal discord.
- media acting as a harbinger for peace and truth and be averse from communal reporting.

the philosophy of vasudhaiva kutumbakam
~~and~~ needs to be ingrained in the ethos of the nation to reduce discord and ensure a peaceful society.
